

FAQ'S

This Veteran designed pin is a depiction of the Gold Star Mothers Family Monument, which one day will be erected on a site adjacent to the Visitor Center at Arlington National Cemetery, honoring all mothers and families from all wars and conflicts for the sacrifice of their loved one while serving our great nation. PLEASE consider being a part of history for this upcoming event with your donations or purchase of the pin.

How was the national monument chosen?

Andrew Chernak was asked to design a statue of a Gold Star Mother to depict the elements of grief and loss. The original prototype design was approved by Dorothy Oxendine, a Past National President of the organization American Gold Star Mothers. (The prototype statue was placed in Carmel, New York by the Putnam County Joint Veterans Council, New York and dedicated July 2006.)

How many years will it take before the monument is dedicated?

Seven years is the maximum allowed time to raise the necessary funds for the project.

Where will the monument be placed?

The Gold Star Mothers Family Monument will be erected on an approved site adjacent to the Visitor Center at Arlington National Cemetery.

What is the dollar amount needed to fund the Monument project?

At this time we believe it will require at least eight million dollars! It's hard to say exactly, because the full scope and scale of the finished monument is not yet approved.

Is there information and a picture on a website?
